

The GIZ Sector Project “Land Policy and Land Management” is seeking qualified consultants for various short term assignments.

The aim of the project is to improve the integration of poverty-reducing and conflict-sensitive land policy and land management approaches into development cooperation. Topics that are covered include the following:

- Land governance
- Development of land tenure policies and legislation
- Securing land rights
- Customary and communal land tenure
- Development of land registers and cadastres
- Land reform
- Land use planning
- Management of land conflicts
- Land valuation and taxation
- Large scale land acquisitions (also known as “land grabbing”)
- Human rights and land tenure
- Land markets, corruption, land speculation
- Land and water rights
- International initiatives (FAO VG, RAI, ALPI)
- Gender and access to land

The consultants should have a minimum of 5 years work experience in at least one of the above listed topics. In addition to that, the following qualifications are required:

- Working experience in a developing country
- Fluency in at least one of the following languages: English, French, Spanish, Portuguese

Interested consultants are asked to express their interest by sending their CV to landmanagement@giz.de.